

Yoga for Ari and Dannie

A Fundraiser for Lyme Disease Treatment

Sunday, Oct. 16, 2011
2:00-3.30 pm

Yoga of Los Altos
377 First Street
Los Altos, CA

Yoga of Los Altos will host a fundraising event for Ari and Dannie Steele-Baker, who have been suffering from chronic Lyme disease for the past 10 years.

Our goal is to help pay for urgently needed medical treatment to improve their quality of life.

Birgit Reimer will teach a gentle Yoga class, and in the adjacent yoga room, Leslie Lambert will show her beautiful ink drawings which will be for sale before and after the yoga session. The money from your purchases and donations will go directly to Ari and Dannie, to support the family's fundraising efforts.

We sincerely thank Yoga of Los Altos and Andi Bruno for offering her studio for this community event.
